In the interest of becoming a member of Phi Kappa Theta Fraternity, I acknowledge that, as a man, I personally embrace the following ideals espoused by Phi Kappa Theta as my own, and I will continue to live my daily life to the best of my abilities according to these ideals for as long as I shall desire to call myself a brother of Phi Kappa Theta.

Fraternal - Our duty to man: To provide the tangible and intangible aids necessary to establish a closely knit collegiate community whose members enjoy a mode of living that is conducive to the formation of gentlemen imbued with principles and ideals as a preparation for living in the world community upon graduation.

Intellectual - Our duty to self and parents: To remind our Brothers that outstanding scholastic achievement is a primary personal responsibility, and to encourage a commitment to the University that provides each Member with his intellectual formation.

Social - Our duty to society: To encourage each Member to identify himself with his collegiate and civic communities by active participation and service, thus fostering a vigorous spirit of loyalty to Alma Mater and selflessness to all men.

Spiritual - Our duty towards God: To deepen the spiritual and enrich the temporal lives of it's Members through a well-balanced program of Fraternal, Intellectual, Social and Service activities.

I further understand that should I fail to uphold any of the ideals of Phi Kappa Theta, my chapter or the National Fraternity may take the necessary steps to revoke my membership in Phi Kappa Theta. Furthermore, I will do everything in my power to hold my fellow Brothers accountable to these ideals for the betterment of themselves and society.
